FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Garden City High School Presents The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee
By Alexis Grace Spera, student

Students at Garden City High School will be presenting the musical comedy The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee on November 16th, 17th, and 18th. The show features a cocky “incumbent,” a homeschooled hippie, a politically aware pupil, an overachiever, a hopeful winner, and a book nerd entered into a spelling bee. That is a recipe for one thing: pandemonium! Hosted by an overly reminiscing former champion and her unprofessional, abrasive sidekick, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee tells the stories of six students’ troubles as they compete for first place. With every word spelled, each student learns something new about themselves—like never underestimating him/herself or that being the best at everything doesn't make you a winner. Come join Chip, Leaf, Logianne, Barfee, Marcy, and Olive to find out who wins.

There will be a performance on November 16th at 4 p.m. and November 17th and 18th at 7 p.m. Tickets can be purchased online (<http://our.show/gardencity/spellingbee>) or the door; Prices are $12 (General Admission) and $10 (Students/Senior Citizens). For further questions, please contact (516) 478-2531.
