For Immediate Release:

Community Outreach - Call for BOE Audit Committee Member

Do you have an expertise in the field of financial auditing and want to give back to the school community? The Board of Education maintains several advisory committees to facilitate best practices in school district operations. The Audit Committee, a five-member panel made up of two Board members and three community members, anticipates an opening for a Garden City resident with expertise in the auditing process. The position is voluntary, and members may be reappointed on an annual basis for up to six years. The Audit Committee advises the Board of Education on matters related to the internal and external auditing process including recommendations for the appointment of the district's auditors, review of draft financial reports, risk assessments, and implementation and oversight of the auditors' recommendations.

If you are interested in applying for a position on the Audit Committee, please send a letter of application and resume by Thursday, December 7, 2017 to the Board of Education, Audit Committee Application, 56 Cathedral Avenue, Garden City, NY 11530.
