For Immediate Release:

Two Garden City High School Vocal Students Selected to Perform at Carnegie Hall

Congratulations to Garden City High School senior Annalise LoBiondo (left) and junior Elizabeth Fetherston for recently being selected to perform at the Honors Performance Series at Carnegie Hall to be held from February 1st through 8th, 2018. Both women are students of music teacher Steve Mayo. This is the third consecutive year Garden City High School students have been chosen for the prestigious program; Annalisa performed in the series last year. Student representatives from across the U.S. and five countries will join with prominent guest conductors for the concerts.
