Technology Facilitates Learning in the World Language Classroom

Senora. Gutiérrez’s Level 2 Spanish Garden City High School students are learning the vocabulary used to discuss shopping in stores. In order to imitate a real life experience, the students are collaborating on a shopping script. Using Chromebooks, small groups of students are able to work simultaneously on their writings. Once they have completed the script, the students will videotape their “shopping experience” and present it to the class. Happy shopping!
