Garden City High School Presents Little Shop of Horrors

By Julia Foxen, student

This year's musical at GCHS is unlike any other! From the upbeat rock 'n roll to the terrifying man-eating plant, Little Shop of Horrors is truly one of a kind. In a decade not too far before our own, the story takes place in a downtown skid row, run-down florist shop managed by Mr. Mushnik, and constantly inhabited by six street "urchins."

Everything seems completely hopeless until one day, the submissive floral assistant, Seymour Krelborn, discovers a new breed of plant he names an "Audrey II" after his coworker crush, Audrey.

"Audrey II" promises Seymour fortune and fame as long as he continues to keep feeding it BLOOD. However, Seymour begins to discover that this alien carnivore will stop at nothing to get what it wants. And it isn't long before this plant reveals its intent on complete and utter global domination!

Come enjoy the show on Thursday, March 9th at 4PM, Friday, March 10th at 7PM, and Saturday 11th at 7PM. Tickets are $12 for general admission and $10 for students and senior citizens. They can be purchased at the door, or in advance at: our.show/gardencity/littleshop.

During the performance, we only ask you to remember one thing... DON'T FEED THE PLANTS!
