High School Students Earn Top Medals on National German Exam

Congratulations to Dr. Zoran Cerar's (standing, far left) German Language students who took the National German Exam on January 29th, 2017 at Garden City High School. "The purpose of the exam is to recognize student proficiency in listening, viewing, and reading German," explained world languages coordinator Mr. Peter Giacalone. "It offered Garden City High School students the opportunity to feel empowered by seeing how their German Language skills rated nationally. As a whole, the students averaged approximately 20th among approximately 130 districts reporting."

Achieving gold medals are: Brandon Noll, Jake Deutsch, Ernst Harrison, Alexandra Kucich, and James Zheng; silver medals: Caroline Feryo, John Karcher, Anjel Kayazade, Jack McKernan, Aidan Padala, Olivia Pappas, and Andrew Tang; bronze medals: Caroline Flanagan, Audra Fitzgerald, Spenser Gorman, Matthew Granville, Marybeth Kane, Aidan McKernan, Chloe Rogers, and Elise Schaubek.
