GCHS Students Capture LI Business Teachers Association Awards

The Long Island Business Teachers Association (LIBTA) competition was held at Commack High School in late April, and Garden City High School business students Chase Gladd (left) and Dean Van Noy placed in this year's competition. Chase was awarded 3rd place in Business Calculations and Dean was awarded 5th place in Entrepreneurship. The competition included several schools from both Nassau and Suffolk counties. The students are pictured here after receiving their plaques at the May 18th awards ceremony at Carlyle at the Palace in Plainview.

Congratulations, Chase and Dean!
