FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Two Garden City High School Students Selected for All-National Honor Ensembles

Congratulations to two Garden City High School students for being selected to the 2017 National Association for Music Education's 2017 All-National Mixed Choir Honor Ensemble. The Honor Choir, along with three other ensembles (Symphony Orchestra, Concert Band, and Jazz Band), will perform at Walt Disney World's Coronado Springs Resort in Orlando, FL, on November 28th and 29th. Pictured here are (left to right) Dr. Nina Prasso, coordinator of Music & the Arts, Alexis Grace Spera (alternate), Rose Kelly, and music teacher Mr. Stephen Mayo.

"To be selected into All-National Chorus, a student has to be accepted into All-State during their junior year," explained teacher Stephen Mayo. "Juniors in All-State are invited to audition, via video, for the All-National Chorus. The students were given a song to perform and they were also allowed to submit a supplemental excerpt."

This year's concerts will feature top conductors leading the four Honor Ensembles made up of 670 of the nation's top music students.
