Stewart Physical Education Teacher Honored with Induction into NC Hall of Fame

Congratulations to Crystal Boyd-Logue, pictured at right holding her Hall of Fame Induction trophy with Garden City’s Athletic Director Dawn Cerrone, at the September 27th Nassau County High School Athletics Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony held at the Crest Hollow Country Club. Ms. Boyd-Logue was inducted for her outstanding career in softball, having been named Nassau County’s Most Valuable Player in 1990 and the first Nassau County inductee into the New York State Softball Hall of Fame. She played professional softball after high school and college, where she was a three-time All Star and the batting and homerun champion of 1998 with the “Georgia Pride” team.

Crystal has been a physical education teacher in Garden City for the past 20 years. She teaches classes at Stewart School and coaches Girls Varsity Tennis, Boys Varsity Bowling, and the seventh grade Boys Volleyball team.
