32. Sibs Club, A Program for Families of Children with Autism, Developmental Disabilities Lab- Queens College

Sibs club is a program for children with autism and families. During each ten week program children with autism and their typically developing siblings attend 2 hour sessions each week. We focus on meeting the individual needs of each child and also fostering a relationship between the siblings. For the first hour children with autism receive individualized instruction focused on skills necessary for successful interactions with their siblings. At the same time siblings participate in their own group focused on their own needs. During the second hour, all the children come together for a supported inclusive recreational time in which we support sibling interactions during fun gross motor activities including stretches, relay races, and freeze dance

We would like to thank Dr. Robert Feirsen his support of this endeavor. We would also like to thank Principal Nanine McLaughlin, Assistant Principals Kevin Steingruebner and Dave Perrotta, and the High School custodians for their support and assistance in the setup of the fair.

A special thanks to SEPTA for all of its support in advertising this event, as well as the donation of supplies and decorations.

Finally, we would like to thank all of the vendors, agencies, and volunteers who helped to make this event a success.

Without all of you, this event would not have been possible.
